

Concord.

Mrs. Rhoda Ripley who has spent the last two months with her son, John Ripley at Lyndonville, has returned home much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McKelvey and daughter of East Concord, visited Mrs. Ellen Gilbert last week.

Mrs. Helen Burroughs, Mrs. Angie Brigham and Mrs. Rhoda Ripley were recent guests of Mrs. Abbie Brigham at Miles Pond.

Mrs. A. J. Coriveau of St. Johnsbury visited her sister, Harry May last week.

Mrs. Nellie Bonnett of St. Johnsbury was a guest of Mrs. Emery Frye, quite recently.

Mrs. L. L. Shackford recently entertained her cousin Miss Sadie Houghton of Lyndon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lillcrap and Mrs. D. A. Pike have returned from their trip to Cohasset, Mass.

Mrs. Miner Carpenter and Mrs. Elwin Gray visited friends at Miles Pond last week.

Frank Winkley was a recent guest of friends at East Concord.

Mr. and Mrs. Eben Milmore and Dr. Hugh Milmore of Cowansville, P. Q., Mrs. Dean Pettis of Montreal, Mrs. Emma Dodge of Buxton, Me., Gerald Dodge of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tatro and daughter Veronica, of Malone, N. Y., and Miss Mary Tatro of Manchester, N. H., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Tatro at Green Mountain Hall last week.

Misses Beatrice and Ennice May of St. Johnsbury visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry May last week.

Miss Helen Reed, Miss Vera Mooney and Rev. Grant Van Blarcom are at Barre this week attending the 75th annual Universalist convention of Vermont and Province of Quebec.

Mrs. Carrie Boutwell is in very poor health, and contemplates giving up her home and will live with her daughter, Mrs. Albert Currier.

Mrs. Grace Francis and daughter, Arline, of St. Johnsbury, visited, Mrs. Carrie Douglas last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Lee and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hastings attended the Barton Fair.

Dr. G. B. French, F. A. Brewer and E. D. Lee, have their cottage at Hall's Pond so nearly completed that they moved their furniture in last week.

Mrs. S. C. Haviland has been entertaining her aunt, Mrs. Minnie Rule.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. May and daughter, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Chase at the Union House, Lyndonville.

L. S. Ford, who has spent the past week in Hardwick has returned to the home of his sister, Mrs. A. E. French.

The ladies of the Universalist church held a food sale Saturday afternoon which was well patronized.

Mrs. M. H. Smith was quite ill last week with the grip.

George Carter and son of Orange, Mass., called on friends in town the past week. They made the trip from Orange in their automobile.

Robert Bennett and Mrs. Joseph Mayhew were at Lunenburg last week to attend the auction on the farm owned by Charles Morgan. Miss Lena Bennett who has spent the last few weeks there, returned home with her father.

Mrs. Augustus Davis has returned from Lunenburg where she has spent the last three months in the family of Victor Sunbury.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Tatro, Miss Cleona Tatro and Dr. Hugh Milmore spent the past week with relatives in Portland.

Mrs. Cora George and two daughters of Burlington were guests at John Pratt's recently.

Mrs. Gertrude Copp of East St. Johnsbury has been spending a short time at B. F. Woodbury's.

Mrs. John Pratt is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Sophia Guild of Walpole, N. H.

Mrs. John Gero of St. Johnsbury was the guest of Mrs. A. E. French last week.

Mrs. Harry May and Viola, were at Lunenburg Friday, guests of Miss Maude Enright.

Mrs. Delia Quimby has received her widow's pension, through John Ripley, agent.

Verne Howard of Barton Landing spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard.

Mrs. William Houston has been entertaining her nieces, the Misses Rainey, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Douglas are spending the week with friends in Newbury.

Mrs. Marietta West of St. Johnsbury was a recent guest of her son-in-law, Frank Joslyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard were at Waterford recently to attend the birthday of their mother, Mrs. James Howard.

Miss Fanny Olcott of Medford, Mass., is visiting her brother-in-law, Abiel Cheney.

Miss Bertha Douglas is spending a few days at St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Harriet Ford, who has spent the last few weeks at Manchester, N. H., has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard left Monday for Chelsea, Mass., where they will spend some time with Mrs. Howard's brother, Rich Stockwell.

Rev. Grant Van Blarcom is entertaining a nephew, Paul Van Blarcom, from Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Moody returned from Caledonia Springs Saturday, and Miss Verna from Old Orchard. Mr. Moody has not gained, while away, as his many friends hoped he might.

Mrs. J. C. Mooney entertained her cousin, Miss Cora Stuart, of St. Johnsbury, over Sunday.

Mrs. Ellsworth Williams has returned from St. Johnsbury, where she spent a week with Mr. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hicks and daughter, Mrs. W. E. Ranney, and daughter, were guests of Mrs. Arthur Lang at St. Johnsbury recently.

Miss Helen Reed, Raymond Smith and Rexford Gray will attend St. Johnsbury Academy this fall.

The village schools open next Tuesday. Fred Rogers has sold his Stanley automobile to James Virtue.

Mrs. Clarence Cutting and son Malvern were guests of Mrs. Lambert Farnham at St. Johnsbury last week.

The friends of Mrs. Charles Shaw will be interested to hear that she has purchased a millinery store in Whitefield, N. H., and engaged Miss Annie Harvey as trimmer.

For Over Sixty Years.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used by millions of mothers for their children's teething. It is sold by all druggists throughout the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures Diarrhea. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Price 25 cents a bottle. Sold by all druggists throughout the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup."

GUARANTEED UNDER THE FOOD AND DRUGS ACT, JUNE 30th, 1906. SERIAL NUMBER 1098.

GROTON.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Welch of Boston returned to their home Saturday having spent three weeks with relatives in town.

Mrs. S. P. Ricker and daughter, Nancy, spent several days in Barre this week.

Dr. J. N. Fowler of Lebanon, N. H., called on friends in town last week.

Mrs. R. S. Hooper of Hardwick recently visited her brother, C. H. Welch, who is ill.

Mrs. Lydia Bailey of Newbury visited her brother, H. C. Glover, last week.

Reuben Goodwin, a former Groton boy and a graduate of Dartmouth college, has been engaged as principal of the High School.

Several from this place attended the social given by the North Ryegate Library association at the home of Corwin Whitehill.

J. J. Rhodes of St. Johnsbury is visiting relatives in town this week.

A decorator from Boston is completing the work on the steel ceiling of the Baptist church.

J. A. Welch is working in the hardware store of L. G. and C. H. Welch.

The End of The World

of troubles that robbed E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Ia., of all usefulness, came when he began taking Electric Bitters. He writes: "Two years ago kidney trouble caused me great suffering, which I would never have survived had I not taken Electric Bitters. They also cured me of General Debility." Sure cure for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney complaints, Blood diseases, Headache, Dizziness and Weakness or bodily decline. Price 50c. Guaranteed by Flint Bros., and F. G. Landry's drug stores.

NORTH DANVILLE.

Albra Fogg's stereoscopic lectures, under the auspices of the Free Baptist Sunday school, Monday and Tuesday evenings, were very interesting and instructive and deserving of a much larger attendance.

Miss Mary Varnum went to Windsor Monday, where she has a position in the Central office of the New England Telephone.

Mrs. Cynthia Bugbee and daughter Maude of Lakeport, N. H., are visiting her brother, J. P. Weeks, and other friends and relatives about here.

Several from this place attended the camp meeting at Lyndonville Sunday.

Quite a delegation from Rising Sun Council, No. 34, Jr. O. U. A. M., attended the district meeting held at East Burke Monday.

W. H. Jeffrey, state vice-councilor, visited Rising Sun Council, No. 34, Jr. O. U. A. M., Saturday evening and made some interesting remarks. Two candidates were initiated and refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Mr. Jeffrey remained in town over Sunday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Massey.

WEST BARNET.

Mrs. M. B. Hale and Miss Roberta Gammon were the guests of friends in St. Johnsbury Saturday.

Miss Janet Varnum and Miss Clara Holmes of Peacham, were the guests of Mrs. E. X. Somers last week Tuesday.

Evelyn Brownell entertained 11 of her little friends last Wednesday.

Mrs. E. X. Somers gave a tea party last week Monday in honor of the 10th birthday of her daughter, Miss Britomarte.

Mrs. A. J. Mackay and children of Peacham were the guests of Mrs. L. H. Thornton for several days last week.

Walter Brock of Boston is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Matilda Brock.

Albert Carter returned from Tilton, N. H., last week.

Rev. and Mrs. McClellan of Weston, Va., were the guests of Rev. and Mrs. S. P. Brownell, Friday.

PEACHAM.

A Pleasant Social Event.

The Ladies' Ver-Cal-Pe club met Friday with Mrs. Ellen Somers at East Peacham. Mrs. Stoddard, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Estes, Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Gile joined with Mrs. Somers as hostesses and helped to make it one of the pleasantest gatherings of the season. Over 50 were present. Mrs. Smith had a graphophone on the piazza which furnished much entertainment. The roll was called and 23 members responded. Mrs. Gray furnished some music and the company joined in singing America. A bountiful collation was served in the dining room.

The Ladies' Social circle of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. Martin Bolton Thursday. Dinner will be served.

Miss Marjorie Guthrie has gone to the Jamestown exposition.

Mrs. Taylor from Ryegate and Mrs. Margaret Emery from Boston, have been visiting at Mrs. Robert Esden's.

Mrs. Leonard Renfrew and son, Ward, from New York, are at Mrs. Eliza Renfrew's.

Mrs. Redell from Poinette, Wis., is visiting her cousins at Nelson Bailey's.

Martin Chaffee from Morrisville came the last of the week and the Academy opened Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morgan from Passumpsic, and Miss Helen Pinkham, daughter of Mrs. Margaret (Steele) Pinkham spent two days at Arch Steele's the first of the week.

G. A. Kenerson and his sister spent several days recently at Asa Mack's at West Danville.

Bliss Clark, son of Dr. Edward Clark of Castleton, is visiting at his grandmother's.

Mrs. Meroe Ash and her son, Hazen, from New Hampshire, and Mrs. Harris from Passumpsic were in town one day last week calling on friends.

Col. Francis Walker and John Towsant from St. Johnsbury, spent last week at Mountain View.

Twenty-one from Peacham attended the Pedley-Bailey wedding at Lyndon last Monday.

When Mrs. S. Farrow and Mr. Somers were driving up one of the East Peacham hills last week they met an automobile the horse was frightened and suddenly turned round, overturning the carriage and throwing them out. Mrs. Farrow was taken to Mr. Esden's where she remained several days.

Frank Gould from Evanston, Ill., has been spending a week at Will Morse's.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolf from New Haven, Conn., and Miss Childs, a teacher from Hyde Park, Mass., have been spending two weeks at Herbert Hooker's.

Little Calvin Jennison celebrated his fourth birthday by cutting his foot on some glass.

Miss Ida Bailey, who has been teaching in Massachusetts the past year is spending a small part of her vacation at Mrs. Clara Bailey's.

Miss Anna Renfrew and her aunt, Mrs. Renfrew, are spending a week at York Beach, Hampton and Ogunquit.

Mrs. Merrill spent last week with her cousins at Danville.

Miss Flora Bickford is spending some time at York Beach and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Winter from Barre were in town one day last week calling on friends.

Miss Anna Perry from Barre is spending a few days with Miss Mamie McLochin.

Dr. L. A. Evans of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday in town. Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Mackey of St. Johnsbury are spending a few days here.

The annual meeting of the W. C. T. U., was held at Miss Sarah A. Hand's Thursday afternoon. Reports were given of the year's work by secretary and treasurer and the officers and superintendents were re-elected. Tea was served later and a social hour spent.

Miss E. G. Prentiss from Winchester, Mass., is visiting friends in town.

Miss Agnes Bayley came home Saturday from New York.

Mrs. Nellie Gile and Mrs. Ashley Goss from West Danville were in town Friday to attend the Ver-Cal-Pe meeting.

Mrs. S. E. Kenerson spent most of last week at Corwin Whitehill's in Ryegate.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams have been spending two weeks at Woodstock.

Rev. Helton Pedley preached in the Congregational church Sunday in the absence of the pastor.

In Self Defense

Major Hamm, editor and manager of the Constitutionalist, Eminence, Ky., when he was recently attacked, four years ago, by Piles, bought a box of Buckle's Arnica Salve, of which he says: "It cured me in ten days and no trouble since." Quickest healer of Burns, Sores, Cuts and Wounds—25c at Flint Bros. and F. G. Landry's drug store.

GRANBY.

Miss Edith Damon and her sister from St. Johnsbury are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Alex Smith.

Mrs. Iola Chappel and Bertha Carpenter of Littleton are visiting friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Webster Webb of Cheney, Washington, are visiting their relatives in town.

Mr. and Mrs. McCown of Sutton visited their daughter, Mrs. J. L. Wells, the past week.

Mrs. Willie Carpenter was in St. Johnsbury for two days the past week on business.

Mrs. Cora Hodgdon was seriously burned while ironing last week. It was feared that she would have blood poison, but excellent care has prevented it.

BARNET.

Rev. Henry Kilbourn, late of Bradford and now of Everett, Mass., occupied the pulpit here Sunday morning and preached a fine sermon.

Mrs. Elizabeth Severn Kenerson of Reading, Mass., is visiting friends here.

Miss Beatrice Potts and two young lady friends from St. Johnsbury spent last week at Harvey's Pond.

Mrs. Margaret B. Hale of West Barnet is visiting Mrs. Fred Potts.

Willard Carpenter Hazelton of New York City is visiting his relatives here.

Mrs. David E. Harriman and little son of South Hadley Falls, Mass., spent last week here at the home of J. S. T. Wallace.

Miss Annie Young, missionary in China, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. S. Laughlin.

Mrs. Ira Albee entertained her Sunday school class by giving a picnic for them last Friday.

Mrs. Walter Johnson and Mrs. Dow took their Sunday school classes to Harvey's Pond for a picnic last Friday.

Mrs. Jane Martin visited in Lyndonville last week.

Mrs. Green of North Danville is visiting at James Gilfillan's.

Mrs. Julia Kirby of Everett, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Sherburne Moore.

Miss Anna Perry spent Sunday in Peacham.

Frank Brown and family have returned to their home in Boston.

Miss Elizabeth Samuels of Boston is visiting her cousin, Mrs. James Samuels.

The W. C. T. U. held a parlor meeting Wednesday afternoon at the pleasant home of Mrs. Jennie Holmes for the benefit of the home for friendless women at Burlington. It was very successful, there being about twenty present, with a collection of nearly $10. A brief but interesting program on rescue work was given followed by a solo by Miss Anna Kilbourn. Afterwards a social hour was enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served.

McINDOE FALLS.

Miss Euphemia Jewett of Vale Perkins, P. Q., was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Walter Skinner, Thursday.

Miss Margaret Gleason who has spent the summer at Gloucester, Mass., is spending a few weeks with her brother, Horace Gleason.

Miss Virginia Perry of Boston is the guest of Miss Adine Lawler.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hunt of Boston are spending a few weeks with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Hunt.

Murray McFarland returned to Claremont, N. H., Friday after a two weeks' vacation spent in town.

Mrs. H. C. Ide was in St. Johnsbury two days last week with her son Robert who was there for treatment.

The village schools commence Sept. 3 with the same teachers as last term.

Willie Moore returned to St. Johnsbury the first of last week after a short vacation.

Mrs. Velma Leighton of Andover, Mass., was the guest of her brother, H. D. Chamberlin the first of last week.

Miss Jennie Larvey has been home from East Barnet for a short visit.

Murray Little spent Sunday with his family at M. D. Hunt's.

Miss Lena Moore spent several days recently with Miss Lena Welch at St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Abbott of Lawrence, Mass., were guests of their cousin H. D. Chamberlin, Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Julia Smith went to West Barnet Friday to visit relatives. She spent several days last week with her brother, Alex Warden at Monroe.

Mrs. Robert Hazelton of Lebanon, N. H., spent several days recently with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Bishop. Her daughter Edith, who has been here several weeks returned with her.

WATERFORD.

Schools in Waterford will begin September 3, with the following teachers: Graded school, Miss Mary Wesley; Gas-kill, Miss Edith Howard; Lower Waterford, Miss Maude Simpson; Hastings school, Miss Bertha Daniels; Hill school, Miss Eleanor Loddell. The schools will be carefully graded and those in charge hope that an advance in efficiency will be made.

LOWER WATERFORD.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Morrison of St. Johnsbury, were guests of his mother, Mrs. Katherine Morrison, Sunday.

E. E. Hale, sister and niece spent Friday in St. Johnsbury Center, the guests of W. J. Henderson.

Miss Katherine M. Rowell who has been visiting Mrs. G. A. Ballou, returned to her home at South Fairlee, Friday.

Miss Susie Morrison of St. Johnsbury, is visiting friends in town.

Mrs. Floyd Blodgett, is entertaining her three sisters of Lyndonville.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bonett, spent Sunday in Passumpsic, the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Elsie Miles.

Mrs. Katherine Morrison and son, W. G. Morrison, are spending the week with relatives in Barre.

Miss Alice Stoddard and brother Elwin, are visiting friends in Barre.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Phillips attended the Barton Fair last week.

Irving Goss and Clifton Babson, who have been spending their vacation in town returned to their home in Boston, Monday.

Harry Brown was thrown from a horse race Friday, and was taken to Littleton hospital. His injuries proved not serious.

Mrs. Decatur, of Lowell, Mass., is visiting her mother Mrs. Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Stoddard and family visited friends in Lunenburg Thursday.

WHEELLOCK.

Rev. and Mrs. Fred Dark and child of West Derby visited at Mrs. Ellen Laffoe's last week.

Earle Orcutt of St. Johnsbury visited his father, Rodney Orcutt on Sunday.

T. L. W. Whitney of Lyndonville and Isaac Whitney of Lowell, Mass., visited at George Barber's last week.

Master Harold Currier spent last week with his grandmother at Lyndon Center.

Dr. Dickinson and two daughters of New Jersey and Mrs. Will Goss of Lyndon visited at George Goss' last week.

Mrs. Mabel Humphrey spent part of last week at East Burke.

Thirteen comrades with their wives met at W. W. Bean's at South Wheelock Thursday for a Post meeting and visit. A bountiful dinner was served and a good time enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Nancy Mathewson is spending this week at Lyndon visiting and attending camp meeting.

Will Stafford attended the fair at Barton last week.

As there were no services here Sunday a good many attended Lyndonville camp meeting.

Freeman Bean of Glover visited his sister, Mrs. George Bean last week.

A. F. Emerson went to St. Johnsbury last week to visit his brother.

The Misses Laura and Hazel Stafford have returned to their work at Utica, N. Y.

NORTH WALDEN.

William Smith an aged citizen, who has been ill for many months, has taken a new lease of life and rides out, driving his own horse.

Mrs. Homer Orton has returned to Boston.

J. C. Stafford visited relatives in Barton Landing last week.

Mrs. Bert Burbank and daughters are in camp at Caspian lake.

Mr. and Mrs. George Downer attended the Barton Fair last week.

Misses Laura and Alta Paronto are visiting in Montgomery.

Miss Rosa Kingsbury of Fitchburg, Mass., and Mrs. Iona Smith of Manchester, N. H., visited here recently.

Levi Paronto is doing Gilman Magoon's haying.

Mr. and Mrs. Lord of Manchester, N. H., are visiting her sister, Mrs. G. H. Hazelton.

Galveston's Sea Wall

makes life now as safe in that city as on the higher uplands. E. W. Goodloe, who resides on Dutton St., in Waco, Tex., needs no sea wall for safety. He writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption the past five years and it keeps me well and safe. Before that time I had a cough which for years had been growing worse. Now it's gone." Cures chronic Coughs, La Grippe, Croup, Whooping Cough and prevents Pneumonia. Pleasant to take. Every bottle guaranteed at Flint Bros., and F. G. Landry's drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

SUTTON.

Levi Aldrich, a former